

The domesticated elephant

Ray is a tame elephant raised in a circus, who manages to return to the jungle after many years. The other elephants welcome him with joy but Ray feels a little uncomfortable at first because of his manners and because he is always cleaner than the others. This short story teaches the acceptance of others and integration into a group.

Subjects

Engineering (Logic)
Art

Social skills introduced

Acceptance and respect for others / Integration
Bullying prevention
Personal hygiene

Further information

In kindergarten, teachers adopt educational and teaching practices aimed at the inclusion of all pupils. Teaching positive values such as respect for and openness to others helps children to grow up in harmony and prevent bullying.

Suggested age

3-4 years

Difficulty of game

Learning objectives

- Logical reasoning

Swat away all the flies on the face of the elephant

Help Ray prepare his bags
Put the red objects into his suitcase

Brush the elephant's teeth

