

Luna the helpful chicken

In the Kingdom of Free Chickens lives Claire, a very brave hen with a passion for stars and planets. She loves reading and she's ready to leave for space. In this collection called "Luna in Space" biology and astronomy are discussed and coding exercises offered.

Subjects
Science

Social skills introduced
Cooperation

Further information

In kindergarten kids are ready to learn basic knowledge of biology relating to living and non-living beings, animals and plants. They learn to discover the diversity of living organisms, their characteristics and changes through games and direct observation.

Suggested age

3-4 years

Difficulty of game

★★★★

- Learning objectives
- Animals: cycles of life and dividing into categories
 - Plants: how they grow
 - Healthy habits

